Incident Information

- At about 7:50 p.m. on Tuesday, January 7, 2020, DCPD responded to Hamilton Place in reference to a disorderly conduct in progress. When officers arrived, they were met by the victim, an 18-year female who stated that several subjects came to her residence and threatened to fight her over a video that appeared on Instagram. During the incident, the victim's vehicle was kicked and damaged. DCPD were able to positively identify the individual responsible for damaging the vehicle. Officers arrested and charged a 15-year-old New Castle City resident. He was charged with criminal mischief and released to the custody of his parents.
- At approximately 6:52 p.m. on Thursday, January 9, 2020, DCPD responded to the Delaware City Mobile Home Park to assist the Delaware City Fire Department with an unconscious person. Upon arrival, it was learned the individual may have consumed illegal drugs and was administered NARCAN. Because of the NARCAN administered by the DCFD, they were able to revive the 34-year-old female. She was transported to the Christiana Hospital for treatment.
- At about 11:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 11, 2020, DCPD responded to the 200 block of Jefferson Street in reference to a home invasion. Our investigation revealed three masked individuals, wearing dark clothing forced their way into the rear of the residence and stole various items. The homeowner was in the residence at the time and was not injured.
- On Sunday, January 12, 2020, the Delaware City Police Department investigated a burglary of an abandoned building on the grounds at Ft. DuPont. It is believed that unknown suspects forced their way into the building sometime between 10:00 p.m. Saturday evening, January 11, 2020 and 10:00 a.m. Sunday morning, January 12, 2020.
